A New Civics

COMMUNITY LIFE AND CIVIC PROBLEMS

By H. C. HILL, The University of Chicago High School

An interesting new civics written in terms readily understood by the boy and girl of high school age. Over 200 pictures and maps supplement the text.

Fourfold in aim.

1. To explain important institutions and problems of modern life.
2. To make civics interesting and concrete by illustration.
3. To establish lasting ideas regarding the topics discussed.
4. To inspire pupils with desire to better their homes, state, country, and the world.

Fourfold in plan.

Part One—Treats the characteristics of group life as they appear in the family, church and local community.

Part Two—Treats the more important problems of community welfare.

Part Three—Deals with the elementary phases of industrial society.

Part Four—Is devoted to a discussion of government and political parties.
